To that end, Widerker and McKenna and McKenna and Russell are useful collections of articles, the former focused on Frankfurt and the latter on Strawson. Unavailable for purchase. Another Platonistic variant of virtue ethics is exemplified by Robert Merrihew Adams. Walker, Rebecca L. Henry S. He points out that in saying that happiness alone is desirable for its own sake, Mill makes it clear that he means that it alone is good for its own sake. Apart from the ideas we have been examining, there is much in the first part of the essay on Comte with which we need not concern ourselves. Kegan Paul. Mikalson, J. He realized that his education had neglected the culture or cultivation of feelings of which hope is a primary instance Autobiography 1.
