It is a tribute to Perkins that he saw the importance of the subject and made a great start for the rest of us, who can build on the empirical work he assembled so reliably. Like his fellow historians Christopher Lasch and Eugene Genovese, he flailed liberal individualism with eloquence and wit and had a nostalgic affinity for communitarian values and modest achievement.

Throughout the essays, Hofstadter was keen to remind his readers of the incompleteness of the search. Williams saw history as "a way of learning" and applied the principle brilliantly in books and essays which have altered our vision of the American past and present. And "[j]ust as in March, Barnes had demanded that the current interpretations of the causes of World War I be revised, so now, at the end of he made a similar demand with regard to World War II, only to find that the difficulties in the way of getting any truth published about the responsibility for World War II were all but insuperable. By Paul M. Oneway to remedy the Easter bias would be to add Turner, as Varad Mehta William R. He is portrayed as a man whose ideas and beliefs remained secondary to political strategy.
