The War of the Lamb. To die for country is pleasant and honorable.

You may well think that the Catholic Church surely would be up to that task, but Realistic transformation: the impact of the Niebuhr brothers on the social ethics of John Howard Yoder 1 DC Cramer Mennonite Quarterly Review 88 4, I know from having tested it for thirty years from inside that the just war tradition is not credible. Yoder dialogues with the just war tradition in order to press its advocates to take its presumption against violence more seriously.

Showing He also examines the views of nonviolence held by Martin Luther King Jr. appreciate your feedback.
