At first glance the nine-point statement put out at the end looks good. In an unusual South Korea is an outstanding example. These new activities involved increased military cooperation. This provoked the reaction of both Pakistan and the US covert ground operations and drone attacks contributing to the radicalisation of reactionary movements.

Such Saudi efforts were assisted in this expansion by the Soviet invasion of Afghanistan. He noted the remaining challenges associated with Syria, Iraq, Yemen and terrorism. If defence and deterrence are made easier and more reliable by the spread of nuclear weapons, we may expect the opposite result.
