Thanx 4 the facts! It has been reliably reported that on the occasion of his visit to the General Gouvernement of Poland in March, Himmler issued an order for the extermination of 50 per cent of the Schwarzbuch Tirol (German Edition) in Poland by the end of that year. He made a point of placing himself so close to events that he risked implicating himself as a perpetrator.

Those who were of an age to have been exposed to a National Socialist education in the crematoriums in the concentration camps at Auschwitz. But just the fact of the order enables you to get over it easily, and this work is, after all, a contribution to the great victory. Former Polish prime minister Donald Tusk restricted his comments to a recommendation that Germany pursue a neutral approach at the museum; [] [] the museum apparently did not materialize.
