And Lord willing, you'll know Him better too, for having heard Steven's heart in this remarkable book. Now how can we discover that which is unseen and eternal?

Every year I have a road trip with a friend delivering scripture calendars across the country. Look under "Commentaries." The emphases in this book of adoption and loss make it a worthy recommendation, not simply for those who like Chapman's music, but also for those who have a heart for "pure religion" or those who have also suffered heartbreaking loss. So glad I got a hold of this book, little I knew of a Godly man whose music is so inspiring. But what does it say? The best, most honest, and humble book I've read in a long time.
