According to oral tradition various pagan deities were masked as saints, taking on the veneer of Christianity while maintaining the ancient veneration of the old gods. For . Inmostcases this wasto extend a bridge, and to make the Italian Craft more appealing. Grimassi has worked as both a writer and editor for several magazines over the past decade, including The Shadow's Edge a publication focusing on Italian Witchcraft and Raven's Call a journal of modern Wicca, Witchcraft and Magick. In some areas of southern Italy, women would find round or kidney-shaped stones of iron-rich clay that rattled from the loose minerals trapped inside. But, ultimately, survivalist perspectives were themselves rejected as out is true of many other charms and customs distorted by the Church and adopted by the common people thus becoming a folk tradition.
