by Frank Gehry. An apparatus to question the essential correspondence between the space and time of the seer and the seen: the contained and inaccessible double within the flat frame as representation and experience overlap: which one is to be dwelled upon: my space or the space of my frame? Leave a comment. Pulse Miami director Helen Allen. Chicago artist Tom Schneider draws on the marvelous, weird, and improbable for his large-scale paintings, each of which is based on a story lifted from the tabloids or drawn loosely from mythologies. I feel lost, I need color spots as if they were signs in a map.
