Rogue A. When Confederate officials finally tried to organize their guerrilla fighters into formal military units, called Partisan Rangers, and ordered them to follow army rules, regulations and directives, it was too late. As MacArthur left the Philippines and Bataan fell, Straughn extended his command to cover all of the area south and east of Manila. This invoked fear within the enemy and led to their command and communication. The 2nd Regular Division was activated after the retreat to Bataan and consisted primarily of the Philippine Constabulary regiments. Wilson, Masaharu Homma, 5.
