This is, by the way, from the original—and superior—poem of this title before she mutilated and abridged it in three successively shorter versions, culminating in a four-line poem that comes off more as a quip than a poem. With his retrospective Armored Hearts: Selected and New Poems, published in these signature features were even more readily apparent in an accumulation of outstanding lyric narratives. For a whimsical example, see her Index to Observations which lists: The Pair Calling across Water at Lion Country Safari. Copy Libraries. Library Links. Overall rating: No ratings yet.
