To show them that they too can become that virtuous woman that Proverbs 31 refers to. But they also are prone to some serious flaws in reasoning, to parochialism, haste, sloppiness and selfishness. She is a woman of few and selected words, reflecting her passionate devotion to the Lord and her heart's commitment to developing women spiritually. Perhaps at a later date I will give this book a second shot at reading. Her character is calm and meek, while her style is simply classy. A great book to read. Memes.
